Do you have a particular level of hikes you are interested in leading? We currently have needs in all areas, however the most demand is for easy and moderate level hikes.

Please put an X in front of all that apply:

- Easy/Newbie Friendly
- Moderate
- Strenuous
- Very Strenuous
- Ultra or Super Hikes (Usual 30+ Miles in One Day)
- Whatever MAHG has volunteer leader needs for that are within my range of abilities

Where is your primary geographical area within the Mid-Atlantic region where you would prefer to volunteer to lead hikes for MAHG?

Please put an X in front of all that apply:

- No Preference – Where my volunteer services are needed the most
- Virginia
- Maryland
- D.C.
- Pennsylvania
- Delaware
- Shenandoah National Park
- Appalachian Trail
- Gorge Washington National Forest
- DC Urban Hikes
- Battlefield or History Hikes

Please share with us why you want to join the Mid-Atlantic Hiking Group's Volunteer Leadership Team.

Please list any training or experience you have that you believe would assist you with being a hike leader, including any military service, medical experience, basic and/or advanced hike leadership certification classes, CPR, EMT, EMS, Wilderness First Aid (Basic or Advanced), or Wilderness Medical First Responder Training, outdoor leadership experience, scouts, or SAR, previous hike leading experience, etc. (Outdoor leadership experience is not required because Mid-Atlantic Hiking Group offers hike leader skills development courses, certification, and a mentor-type training program.

E-Mail your completed application to Kellie Carlisle at Kcarlisle@midatlantichikinggroup.org. Our volunteer coordinator will review your application and contact you to arrange your shadow training hikes, if you have not previously arranged them.

Thank you for your interest in joining Mid-Atlantic Hiking Group's Volunteer Leadership Team!

Yours in Service,
